

Prepare a minimum of 12 and maximum 15 questions for the interview of the job you have applied for. First 4-5 questions should be general, the next 5-7 should be field specific, and last questions should be related to general usefulness of your skills for the organization you are applying to and salary and other benefits.